

About Us

Our vision: a world where everyone has a decent place to live

At Flatirons Habitat for Humanity, we know that a world in which every person has a decent place to live is also a more educated and equitable world. By creating opportunities for affordable homeownership, we strengthen families and communities.

Our mission: to build strength, stability, self-reliance, and shelter

We partner with the people in our community - and across the world - to help them build or improve a place to call home. Habitat homeowners build their own homes alongside volunteers and pay an affordable mortgage. With the support of our volunteers, partners, and donors, Habitat homeowners achieve the strength, stability, and independence they need to build better lives for themselves and their families.

Our history: serving Flatirons communities for 25 years

Flatirons Habitat was chartered as a Habitat for Humanity International affiliate in 1993. Since then, we have served nearly 100 families locally by building, repairing, and rehabilitating homes. We have also funded the construction of more than 130 homes internationally.

Flatirons Habitat has an open-door policy: All who believe everyone needs a decent, affordable place to live are welcome to help with our work, regardless of race, religion, age, gender, political views, or any other of the distinctions that too often divide people.
